

YEAR BOOK IN MEMORIAL FORM

A. P. V. A. to Honor Its Former Life President—Annual Tea Omitted.

The central committee of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities met at noon yesterday in the Virginia Historical Society rooms, with Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson in the chair.

In the absence of the treasurer, Mrs. William Bentley, who is sick, Mrs. Ellyson read her report, giving a balance in the treasury of $23.56, and the receipts from Jamestown for the three months of September, October and November, at $1,000. The balance sheet stated includes the Jamestown receipts for September and October. Those sent in November amount to $200.

The chairman of the Jamestown committee reported that the fence around the garden of the Daughters of the American Revolution house has been completed and that the pedestal of the Pocahontas monument has also been finished. A proposition from Mr. Mollinson, who has superintended the work on the monument, to repair the Daughters of the American Revolution building was submitted to Mrs. Ellyson. She was empowered to communicate in detail with Mr. Mollinson and then to act in the matter by the advice of the president, Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson.

Mrs. George H. Cannon, of the membership committee, reported the receipt of a check for $10 from Mrs. Elizabeth Morgan, of Baltimore, through the honorary chairman of the committee, Mrs. R. W. Watkins, of Houston, Va. The chairman of the Year Book committee, Mrs. Granville Valentine, being sick, Mrs. W. G. Stanard reported that the Year Book would be ready for distribution at the annual meeting on January 4, 1911; that it would be a memorial number in honor of the late Mrs. Joseph Bryan. Also that it would

MAY SHAVE MORE CLOSELY

Many Men Would Not Do Without Pos-lam, Which Soothes and Heals.

While the application of pos-lam, the new skin shaving cream, is one of its minor uses, such as for pimples, the complexion, etc., shavers have found it a revelation as it does for abrasions, roughness and severe scrapings what it does in all manner of skin difficulties—heads and cures in a few days. Pos-lam's great antiseptic and curative value enables it to tone up the skin as no toilet preparation possibly could. Any infection, such as barbers' itch, is quickly cured, for pos-lam's primary work is the rapid healing of such serious skin diseases as eczema, acne, tetter, salt rheum, etc. Pos-lam is the best and quickest cure that I have seen in my 25 years' experience in the barber business," says Frank J. Kammerer, Richmond, Wis.

A sample of pos-lam (mailed free) will tell the whole story. Write for it to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York City. Pos-lam is sold in two sizes (trial, 50 cents; regular jars, $2) by all druggists, particularly at Tragle's.

be the most complete book in every respect which the association has yet issued.

Two members from Accomac County, Misses Jane Henry and Alice Emma Custer, were elected at yesterday's meeting. A letter from Miss Susie C. Le Cato to Mrs. Ellyson contained the announcement that the old debtors' prison in which her branch was interested had been turned over to its members by the county supervisors, to be restored and kept in order.

Miss Ellyson, at her last meeting, chose Drummond Town Branch as her name. Miss Florence Browne was elected secretary, and Thomas W. Blackstone, treasurer.

The names of branch members and officers, as forwarded to the treasurer, Mrs. Bentley, are: Patrick Henry, William P. Bell, Mrs. W. B. Bell, Thomas W. Blackstone, Miss Blackstone, Miss Florence B. Browne, J. Abbott, Byrd, Miss Mary E. Fletcher, Charles Friend, Mrs. Friend, John D. Grant, Miss Hallie B. Higgins, Miss S. C. Le Cato, Barfon K. Lilliston, Mrs. A. Payant, Mrs. Anna C. B. Simmerman, Dr. and Mrs. Seymour B. Ward. The annual tea will not be held, out of respect to the memory of Mrs. Joseph Bryan.

MANY DEATHS DUE TO CONSUMPTION

Contagious Diseases Showed Big Decline Locally During November.

South Richmond seems to be a healthy place in which to live, according to figures made public yesterday by the Board of Health, covering vital statistics of Richmond for the month of November. The annual death rate for the entire population of the old city per 1,000 of population was 23.38, while including Washington Ward the death rate for the entire city was but 21.33. The total number of deaths in the entire city in November was 231—116 white and 115 colored. Excluding non-residents, the actual number of deaths was 204—97 white and 107 colored—making the net death rate for the entire city per 1,000, 18.84, a death rate for white people of 14.12 per 1,000, and for colored people of 27.04 per 1,000.

In the table of causes of death there is a noticeable decrease from what are regarded as communicable or contagious diseases, except in the case of consumption, which continues to take its toll.

During the month there was not a single death in the whole of Richmond from malarial fever, scarlet fever, whooping cough, measles, influenza or tetanus. Typhoid fever claimed only one, diphtheria claimed two victims—one white and one colored—both in the old part of Richmond. Pellagra carried off two victims—one white and one colored. Other important causes of death were: Cancer, 7; apoplexy, 20; organic heart disease, 13; Bright's disease, 21; pneumonia, 14; broncho-pneumonia and bronchitis, 17; appendicitis, 6; suicide, 1; legal electrocution, 2; other violent deaths, 15.

In the table of deaths by age periods it is shown that 13 of those dying during the month were more than eighty years of age. Thirty-three of the deaths were of children under one year—12 of them white and 21 colored.

Infayette Field as Playground.

Norfolk, Va., December 6.—The Norfolk School Board is anxious that Infayette Field, once the baseball park and for years the scenes of many college football battles, be turned over to the public schools for a playground. They have formally petitioned Council for the field, admitted to be one of the best in this section. With a nominal amount spent on the old grandstand and bleachers, it would be an attractive place.

SHIP WILL BE FLOODED.

Only Way to Extinguish Fire on Austrian Steamer, Glia.

Norfolk, Va., December 6.—Unable to extinguish the fire which has been burning in the hold of the Austrian steamer Glia, which was towed to the pier this morning, the ship will be flooded. The Glia left Savannah Sunday morning and rode as far as Petersburg on the trucks of a freight train. When the train arrived in the Petersburg yards, and the cars were uncoupled, the boy made his escape and found another northbound train. He climbed on top of a refrigerator car, and finding the door to the icebox open, he dropped into the compartment. On his ride to Baltimore the boy nearly froze to death. He had eaten no food for nearly twenty-four hours, when taken into custody by the police after a thrilling ride from Savannah, Ga.

When the train was nearing Baltimore, after passing through a veritable blizzard, the boy was found by a trainman. He was taken from his prison and no time was lost in giving him medical attention and food.

EVANS WINS WRESTLING BOUT.

Takes Two Out of Three Falls from Hackenschmidt.

Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—Bristol, Va., December 6.—In an exciting three-fall wrestling bout, here to-night, Frank Evans, the middleweight champion, won from Charles Hackenschmidt, a Western wrestler, of European birth.

Hackenschmidt, who was the first fall in eight minutes, and Evans won the second in nine minutes, and the third in sixteen. Evans, although ten pounds heavier than Hackenschmidt, is decidedly the more clever.

FRANK GRIMALDI DEAD

Man Well Known in Sporting Circles Stricken in New York.

Frank Grimaldi, well known in local sporting circles, died, it is said, of a stroke, with apoplexy in St. Luke's Hospital, New York City, on Monday. He was forty-seven years old. The body will be brought to Richmond for interment, and the funeral will be from the residence of his mother, Mrs. S. V. Grimaldi, who lives at 2215 East Grace Street.

DOLAN NAMED TO ATTEND WASHINGTON CONVENTION

W. T. Dolan was elected delegate to the national convention of deputy collectors of the United States Internal Revenue Department, which will be held next Monday in Washington, at a meeting of the Gauleys, Storekeepers and Storekeepers-Gaugers Association held last night at the Virginia bonded warehouse.

Resolutions were adopted on the recent death of J. W. Donly, a well known storekeeper-gauger attached to the Richmond office.

NO TROOPS COMING

Luncheon to Follow Laying of Post-Office Corner—$4000.

Fearing that it might establish an expensive precedent, Secretary of War Dickinson yesterday declined the request of Congressman John Lamb for a detachment of artillerymen from Fort Monroe to take part in the exercises incident to laying the corner-stone of the new post-office and Federal building in Richmond, on the afternoon of December 17. In view of this action it is probable that all military features will be omitted.

The corner-stone will be laid with Masonic honors by Meridian Lodge, in the presence of many officials. Ex-Governor Montague has been invited to make the address. Following the exercises, which will take place at 3 o'clock, a luncheon will be served to about 100 invited guests at the Bland-Morse Club, by J. Henry Miller, the general contractor.
